

Padre Kino & His Legacy

Arizona Historical Society Saturday Seminar

AHS # 44478

In honor of the 300 year anniversary of his death, the Arizona Historical Society, along with the Kino Heritage Society, presents a panel presentation about Padre Kino and his legacy, followed by a re-dedication of the Kino statue at the Arizona History Museum.

Dr. Bernard “Bunny” Fontana, author of Gift of Angels, the Art of San Xavier Mission, talks on Kino the mission builder.

Dr. James “Big Jim” Griffith, folklorist and author of Saints of the Southwest and The Face of Christ in Sonora, talks about Kino’s impact on the culture of the Pimeria Alta.

Rev. Eduardo Fernandez, S.J. Jesuit School of Theology , Berkeley, California, talks about Padre Kino’s and present day practice of missiology.

Courtesy of Architect of the Capital website

The event will begin at 10:00am Saturday, February 19, 2011 at the Arizona History Museum located at 949 E. Second St., Tucson, AZ

For information contact Emily Spargo-Guerrero

(520) 617-1153 or esg@azhs.gov

